HARD MEDICINES.

Java as a Cure for Various Diseases, Coughs Remedies and Preventives.

Although popularly supposed to be a nostrum, it is now known that Java from remote ages has been credited with the power of protecting the wearer from many diseases, and that it has a reputation which is retained until even a paralytic recent times. According to Pliny it was a favorite in ancient Rome, and was supposed to possess the latter virtue. Besides the diamond and other stones were supposed to possess similar virtues.

The ruby was considered good for digestion of the liver, as well as for bad eyes.

The sapphires and emeralds were also reported as remedies which relieved them from various intestinal, epithelial disorders, and there is a superstition that serpents are blinded by looking at them.

The turquoises, although not credited with either remedial or protective qualities, were nevertheless regarded as a kind of sympathetic indicator, the intensity of the color being proportional to the health of the wearer.

For detailed information apply to any competent field agent, or send a post card to the office of the company folder, to Geo. H. Headford, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Ill., or C. C. Brady, South Pass, Agt. Louisville, Ky.

Rev. Dixon Williams will conduct the pretrial meeting at the C. F. church this month. It will be remembered that the Rev. Williams conducted a very successful meeting here seven years ago when the 200 members of the church turned out to God. It is hoped that he may be as successful this time as he was before. —Madisonville Advertiser.

The negotiations at the Methodist church are immature. Mr. Morrison is doing some grand preaching, and the indications point to one of the most profound religious awakenings that have been known in this part of the State. The people are coming from long distances in the country and from neighboring towns to hear this call. His example is to be followed by hundreds failed to get inside the door Sunday night. The meeting will be continued through this week. There is a service for men only at the court house every morning at 8 o'clock, at the church at 8 in the afternoon and at night at 7:30.
